The Lexington first was contested by 2-year-olds during Keeneland inaugural meeting in 1936. The race was run as an overnight handicap for 3-year-olds and up from 1938-41. It was returned to the stakes schedule in 1984 when official elevated the Calumet Purse – an important allowance race for 3-year-olds – to an added-money event and renamed it the Lexington Stakes ... Sponsored by Coolmore, the world-famous Irish-based stallion operation, from 1998-2015. ... Sponsored by Stonestreet since 2019.

Lexington: 2 (1 won both races)
